CLIENT STORY

PEACE, POWER & PERFORMANCE SYSTEM

"I'VE CONTRIBUTED MORE CODE THIS YEAR THAN IN THE PAST FIVE."

P

Philip McN
DevSecOps Software Engineer

IN HIS WORDS

"I'd have a good week, then miss my targets and beat myself up over it, as if the angrier I am at myself, the better I'll come out the other side. Shockingly, that wasn't working. And the moment there was a disagreement at work, all that contempt I had for myself, I was pushing on co-workers.

Productivity books offer tactics like 'use the Pomodoro method'. Those don't meet me where I am. Shaun's System was built around me, whether I was super angry, super sad or perfectly fine.

This year I've contributed more code than I have in the past five, and I've been happier while doing it."

BEFORE

"Being hard on yourself works its way into the first thought you have in the day and the last before bed."

AFTER

"I'm able to get out of bed without a weight vest on. Everything feels lighter."

PEACE

"Peace keeps popping up in how I feel. You can't really ask for more than that."

POWER

"I'm not trying to think my way through thoughts about thoughts. It's just: oh, this is a film, and I don't need to do anything beyond that."

PERFORMANCE

"At the end of the day It's not a race to get to the couch anymore. It's: what else can I get done today?"
